Thesis or Dissertation

Please Note: You are the owner of the copyright in your thesis/dissertation. By executing this document you are granting permission to Emory University to publish this document on the world wide web (immediately upon graduation unless otherwise specified).

Part 1 - Author Agreement:

I hereby grant to Emory University and its agents the non-exclusive license to archive, make accessible, and display, subject to the conditions specified below in Part 2, my thesis or dissertation in whole or in part in all forms of media, now or hereafter known, including the display of the thesis or dissertation on the world wide web. I retain all ownership rights to the copyright of the thesis or dissertation. I also retain the right to use in future works (such as articles or books) all or part of this thesis or dissertation. I certify that my electronic submission is the version of my thesis/dissertation that was approved by my committee.

Part 2 - Terms of Access:

*Access restrictions must receive approval from your advisor and the Graduate School. NOTE: Your access choices on the Proquest/UMI Publishing Agreement (at page 3) should correspond with the choices you have made on this form.

Choose Option 1 or 2 by checking one box in the left hand column below:

Check Box Below to Choose Option 1: <input type="checkbox"/>	Option 1: OPEN ACCESS. By choosing open access you are agreeing to publish your thesis or dissertation in Emory's ETD repository immediately after graduation. This option will provide the broadest possible access to your work. The full-text of your thesis or dissertation and any supplemental files will be accessible on the internet for unlimited viewing. Your thesis or dissertation will be indexed and discoverable via major search engines.

* Proquest does not offer the six-year restricted access option offered by the Emory repository, however. You will need to negotiate restricted periods longer than two years directly with Proquest.

I, the undersigned, have read this form in its entirety, and by signing below:

- (1) Grant the license described in Part 1;
- (2) Agree to the terms of access detailed in Part 2; and
- (3) Certify that I have obtained the proper permissions, if necessary, for any previously copyright materials included in my thesis/dissertation as described in Part 3.
